Science Education Student Teaching Award
Angela D. Harrison Award
Nomination Form

Student Teacher Nominee: __________________________ Date: ________________

Student Teaching Placement Information
School: __________________________ District Name: __________________________
Grades Taught: __________________________ Subject Taught: __________________________
1st placement _______ 2nd placement _______

Nominator Information
Name: __________________________
Phone: __________________________ Email Address: __________________________
Position: ____ College Supervisor ____ Cooperating Teacher

Nomination Criteria
Please give detailed rationale to support each of the following areas. You may attach a separate sheet or provide supplemental documents.

I. Teaching Atmosphere
Please describe the attributes that this student teacher possesses that have resulted in the establishment of a positive, productive teaching atmosphere:

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

II. Routine Paperwork
How did this student teacher excel in the school and classroom paperwork that is required of teachers, please use specific examples:

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

III. Lesson Plans
Describe the quality of lesson plans including elements of instruction that have prompted this nomination:

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

IV. Rapport with Students
What exceptional aspects of positive interactions with students and the handling of disciplinary problems did this person exhibit?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

ALL NOMINATIONS ARE TO BE GIVEN TO THE STUDENT TEACHER COORDINATOR, Dr. Lange, Science 133 or langecl@buffalostate.edu by the sixth week of each student teaching placement.